

University of Michigan Department of Astronomy and Exhibit Museum of Natural History in association with Student Astronomical Society present

Cosmic Origins

a series of public lectures
& observatory nights

September 19

Rocky Kolb

University of Chicago

"The Quantum and the Cosmos"

American Astronomical Society

Second Century Lecture

October 3

Gus Evrard

University of Michigan

"The Birth of Galaxies"

October 17

Alyssa Goodman

Harvard University

"A Recipe for Making Stars and Planets"

October 24

Geoffrey Marcy

University of California at Berkeley

"Extrasolar Planets and Prospects for Life"

Orren C. Mohler Distinguished Lecture

November 7

Fred Adams

University of Michigan

"Future of Life, Universe and Everything"

All lectures will be held Fridays at 7:30 pm
Angell Hall Auditorium D (435 South State Street, Ann Arbor)
followed by telescope viewing on the Angell Hall roof (weather permitting)

For more information, call (734) 764-0478
or visit www.exhibits.lsa.umich.edu or www.astro.lsa.umich.edu

